

QUARTERLY NEWSLETTER
BEN T. EPPS, FLIGHT 102

ATLANTA, GEORGIA

SEPTEMBER 2009

LATE 3rd Qtr NEWSLETTER !

Here's the deal, to make us even, we'll count the 2 newsletters sent the first quarter newsletters were published. OK? Sorry for missing this suspense. Please understand – we do make an effort to keep information coming your way often. Between Brad's meeting notices, website, Calling Post telephone calls, and periodic emails from the Flight Captain, you should feel wanted...!

NEXT MEETING: 24 OCTOBER 2009
JOINT 'TRI-FLIGHT' MEETING
MUSEUM OF AVIATION – WARNER ROBINS, GA
Email or telephone your reservations to Brad Wright NLT 17 OCT...!

“Joint” FLIGHT MEETING: As indicated in the last newsletter and at our last Flight meeting, the talked-about “Joint” meeting between the 39th (Eagle) Flight/Robins AFB and the 58th (Gator) Flight/Moody AFB is scheduled. We could not justify a charter bus. Therefore, start making your transportation plans now. Be sure to call or email Brad Wright with your attendance. Don't forget – we are bringing our spouses / significant others to this meeting.

Mack does it again...! As this newsletter “goes to press”, fellow Flight member Mack Secord is headed to Washington D.C. to receive the 2009 Public Benefit Flying Awards’ “Distinguished Volunteer Pilot” award from the National Aeronautic Association (NAA) and the Air Care Alliance. For almost the entire history of powered flight, NAA has been the caretaker of many of the nation's and the world's most prestigious aviation awards. Part of NAA's mission is identifying and recognizing those who have contributed to the "art, sport and science of aviation and space flight." The ceremony will be in the Lyndon B. Johnson room of the U.S. Senate.

CHRISTMAS MEETING: No, it's not too early to be planning this one either. Be sure to mark 15 December on your calendars for our annual Christmas dinner with spouses. Mack is lining up a great guest speaker. This is always our best meeting of the year. Plan on it...!

2010 Meetings: We are planning meetings on both “The North Side” and “The South Side” next year. Start beating the bushes for “lost” and future members to bring as your guests.
